Mr. ALDRICH, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the relief of Nathaniel McLean, Richard G. Murphy, and Charles E. Flandrau.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That there be paid, out of any money in the treasury not other-
4 wise appropriated, to Nathaniel McLean the sum of nine hun-
5 dred and sixteen dollars and fifty cents; to Richard G. Murphy
6 the sum of one thousand seven hundred dollars and thirty-two 7 cents; and to Charles E. Flandrau the sum of one hundred 8 and eighty-nine dollars and thirty-two cents, for additional pay 9 for their services as agent for the Sioux of Minnesota, during 10 the respective periods when each served in that capacity after 11 the treaty of July twenty-three, eighteen hundred and fifty-one,

- 12 with said Indians, until the third of March, eighteen hundred 13 and fifty-seven, at which last date the pay of that agency was 14 raised by law to fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

For the relief of Nathaniel McLean, Richard G.
Murphy, and Charles E. Flandrau.

FEBRUARY 8, 1861.—Read twice, committed to a Committee of the Whole House, and ordered to be printed.
